eCop[®] Sells Donovan Hatem LLP on Omega

SCOTTSDALE—January 6, 2011—Donovan Hatem LLP, a dynamic firm of attorneys to whom clients turn when they need help solving complex, pressing, and sensitive legal problems, has purchased Omega Legal^{VX}.

"After an extensive evaluation process to find the best financial and practice management system to meet the demanding needs of our firm, we selected Omega," said Karen Edwards, Director of Administration and Finance with Donovan Hatem LLP. "There were a number of compelling product features which influenced our decision to invest in Omega Legal^{VX}, including the real-time billing rules validation with eCop[®]."

With more than 50 attorneys, Donovan Hatem LLP serves clients from its offices located in Boston and New York. "We needed a product that would provide us with business intelligence to identify areas where we needed to improve processes and increase firm profitability," explains Edwards. "Now we'll be able to access firm data on a daily basis, pull detailed reports in a matter of minutes, and easily share the knowledge with key decision makers. This level of access to critical business indicators gives us an exciting opportunity to be more strategic and nimble."

"We are delighted that Donovan Hatem has selected Omega to expand their time, billing and accounting solutions platform, as well as drive operational excellence," said Don Gall, President and Founder of Omega Legal Systems, Inc. "Omega Legal^{VX} is a state of the art system that will enable Donovan Hatem to continue to deliver the highest standard of client service for years to come. We see the addition of this firm as another strategic partnership for Omega in the New England marketplace, where we are continuing to expand our market leadership."
